Foreword

Northern Ireland's food and drink industry is one of our most vibrant, dynamic, and proudly distinctive sectors - built on generations of craftsmanship, a deep respect for our land and waters, and a bold spirit of innovation that continues to set us apart on the global stage.

Our producers share a common commitment: delivering exceptional quality, trusted provenance, and unforgettable flavour.

This guide brings together the best of Northern Ireland's food and drink expertise in one place - showcasing the breadth, capability, and creativity of the sector.

Whether you're seeking established partners, exploring new product categories, or discovering fresh opportunities for collaboration, this guide opens the door to a world of possibilities shaped by passion, integrity, and industry leading standards.

Ambient

Northern Ireland's ambient food sector is bursting with flavour, imagination, and innovation- bold brands, artisan creators, and high performance manufacturers who are shaping the tastes of consumers across the world.

From vibrant condiments, preserves, sauces, and sides that elevate every meal, to feel good, health forward bites which sit proudly alongside the kind of indulgent treats that make life that little bit sweeter, our producers deliver quality you can trust and creativity you can taste.

Powered by a passion for provenance, world leading food standards, and a spirit of relentless innovation, our producers are transforming simple, shelf stable products into global success stories.
